

Application for divorce

T'John Smith'O is applying to the court for a decree of divorce from Jane'Y Jamed'O, to order Beni'O Stark'Y to pay some or all of the divorce costs, and for financial orders.

Issued

05 February 2018

Reference number

LV17D80100

Applicant

T'John Smith'O

Respondent

Jane'Y Jamed'O

Co-respondent

Beni'O Stark'Y

About the marriage

Who the marriage is between

John'Y Doe-Mick and Jenny O'Benny (as shown on the marriage certificate)

Where the marriage took place

In a church-town

Date of marriage

02 February 2001

Why the court can deal with the case (jurisdiction)

- The applicant and respondent were last habitually resident in England and Wales and one of them still resides there.
- The respondent is habitually resident in England and Wales.

- The applicant is habitually resident in England and Wales and has resided there for at least a year immediately prior to the presentation of the application.
- The applicant is domiciled and habitually resident in England and Wales and has resided there for at least six months immediately prior to the application.

Other court cases that could affect jurisdiction

The applicant has given the following court cases which are related to the marriage, property or children.

"Insert proper text for the legal proceeding details's"

Reason for the divorce

The marriage has broken down irretrievably, based on the fact that the respondent committed adultery with the co-respondent, and the applicant finds it intolerable (unbearable) to live with the respondent.

This is supported by the following statement from the applicant.

"Adultery Details's"

Where the adultery took place

"On the street's"

When the adultery took place

"Last Friday's"

Additional applications

Costs orders

The applicant is also applying to the court to claim the costs of the divorce from the co-respondent.

Financial orders

The applicant is applying to the court for financial orders about how any property, money, pensions or other assets which you each have should be shared, for themselves and your children.

Respondent's correspondence address

Moneybags
Solicitor4U
77 Landor's Road
London
SW9 9PE

Statement of truth

"I believe that the facts stated in this application are true."

T'John Smith'O