How the respondent wants to proceed

The respondent will let the divorce proceed (doesn't intend to 'defend' it).

The respondent is not intending to ask the court to delay the divorce until it's satisfied with their financial situation.

Jurisdiction of the court

The respondent does not agree that the courts of England and Wales have the jurisdiction (the legal power) to grant a divorce.

They gave the following statement to support this:

"Dummy respJurisdictionDisagreeReason"

They were asked in which country their life is mainly based. They responded:

"India"

Other court cases that could affect jurisdiction

The respondent said there are no other proceedings outside of England and Wales which are related to the marriage or which may affect its validity (how legally binding the marriage is).

Costs order

The respondent has said they should not pay costs and gave the following explanation about why they should not pay:

"Dummy respCostsReason"

Statement of truth

"I believe that the facts stated in this application are true."
