Dear Jane Jamed,

Your wife ĆĀŁukasz John Smith has applied for a divorce. You can find a copy of the application included with this letter.

You need to respond within 7 days. If you don't respond, your wife can ask the court to move the divorce forwards without you. You may have to pay extra fees if this happens.

How to respond

1. Go to www.gov.uk/divorce-respond
2. Create an account using your email address
3. Enter this reference number: 1517-8337-5887-0511
4. Enter your access code: 4321

Please contact us if you can't use the online service for any reason, or if the 7 days have passed.

Getting help

The online service is written in plain English and designed to be used by citizens. If you want to use a legal representative, you must give them this letter as soon as possible.

For further guidance on divorce, how to split money and property, and make child arrangements you can visit:

- www.gov.uk/divorce
- Citizens Advice (www.citizensadvice.org.uk/family/ending-a-relationship/)
- Advicenow (www.advicenow.org.uk/divorce)
- Personal Support Unit (www.thepsu.org)

You must only sign in to this service if you are Jane Jamed or someone they have asked to represent them. You could be fined or imprisoned for contempt of court if you access this service illegally.

If you're a solicitor

We're still working on the online divorce service for solicitors. For now, you'll need to respond to this divorce application using the paper forms. You can contact us to have these sent to you.
