About the marriage

Who the marriage is between

John Doe and Jenny Benny (as shown on the marriage certificate)

Where the marriage took place

In a church

Date of marriage

02 February 2001

Why the court can deal with the case (jurisdiction)

- The applicant and respondent are habitually resident in England and Wales.
- The applicant is habitually resident in England and Wales and has resided there for at least a year immediately prior to the presentation of the application.

Other court cases that could affect jurisdiction

The applicant has given the following court cases which are related to the marriage, property or children.

"Insert proper text for the legal proceeding details"

Reason for the divorce (and supporting information)

The marriage has broken down irretrievably, based on the fact that the respondent committed adultery with the co-respondent, and the applicant finds it intolerable (unbearable) to live with the respondent.

This is supported by the following statement from the applicant.

"Adultery Details"

Where the adultery took place

"On the street"

When the adultery took place

"Last Friday"

Additional applications

Costs orders

The applicant is also applying to the court to claim the costs of the divorce from the respondent and the co-respondent.

Financial orders

The applicant is also applying to the court for financial orders for the children of the applicant and the respondent.
